Organization's General Goals:
Our mission is to fund a path of healing to all military service members, veterans, first responders, and their families through personal grants for CranioSacral Therapy (CST) healing programs and other integrated therapies. These CST programs provide a safe, compassionate, and healing environment for trauma treatment, post-traumatic stress (PTSD), traumatic brain injury (TBI) - removing financial barriers, regardless of their ability to pay.

Date of Award:	Level:
2023 Q3	$2,501 to $5,000

We want to thank the Tulalip Tribe Charitable Contributions for your 2023 donation. With the generous donation, we were able to provide 13+ healing sessions to our community in need.

AIH I-Healing programs provide heroes and their families with safe, continuous care without the worry of whether there's coverage or not. We have spent too many hours navigating the system of insurance companies and VA benefits. We don't expect a person with trauma or brain injury to have to navigate it too, even though essential healing treatments are deserved.

Here is one testimonial from a local Veteran after completing their I-Healing Program:

“In my deep grief, the treatment was a healing gift. Kim is a kind, generous, and compassionate provider.”
