

Funds Distribution Report

Recipient Organization:
Greater Maple Valley Community Center

Address:
22010 SE 248th St
Maple Valley, WA 98038

Contact:
(425) 432-1272
<https://www.maplevalleycc.org>

Organization's General Goals:
The Greater Maple Valley Community Center provides an enduring facility that serves as an inclusive community hub, hosting programs and services that increase the opportunity for connections, engagement, and growth for greater Maple Valley.

Date of Award:	Level:
2023 Q1	$500 to $2,500

For more information, please read the attached report from Greater Maple Valley Community Center

8802 27th Ave NE
Tulalip, WA 98271
TulalipCares.org

July 1, 2024

Marilyn Sheldon
Director
Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions

Ms. Sheldon,

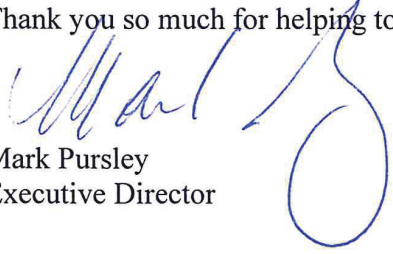

Thank you for your support of the Greater Maple Valley Community Center's Senior Nutrition Program. Your support over the past year has enabled this organization to make a significant impact on the elders of our Community.

Report on Funding from the Tulalip Tribes Charitable Contributions Fund

Organization: Greater Maple Valley Community Center
Organization URL: www.maplevalleycc.org
Report Code: Q1 2023 14.2
Numbers Served: In the twelve months following our award (June 1, 2023 through May 31, 2024) we accomplished the following:

- 6,160 Senior Congregate meals served to 281 unduplicated seniors with an additional 62 unregistered senior guests
- 5,381 meals were delivered to homebound seniors through the Meals On Wheels Program.
- Our health & wellness efforts were well attended
 - Senior Foot Care (113 unduplicated seniors)
 - Blood Pressure Checks (65 unduplicated seniors) in partnership with our local Fire Department
 - Walking & Hiking groups (87 unduplicated seniors)

Thank you so much for helping to make this possible.

Mark Pursley
Executive Director

Mothers Day Tea

Coffee with a Cop

Fun at Lunch

Ready to Take blood Pressures

Staying health through walking